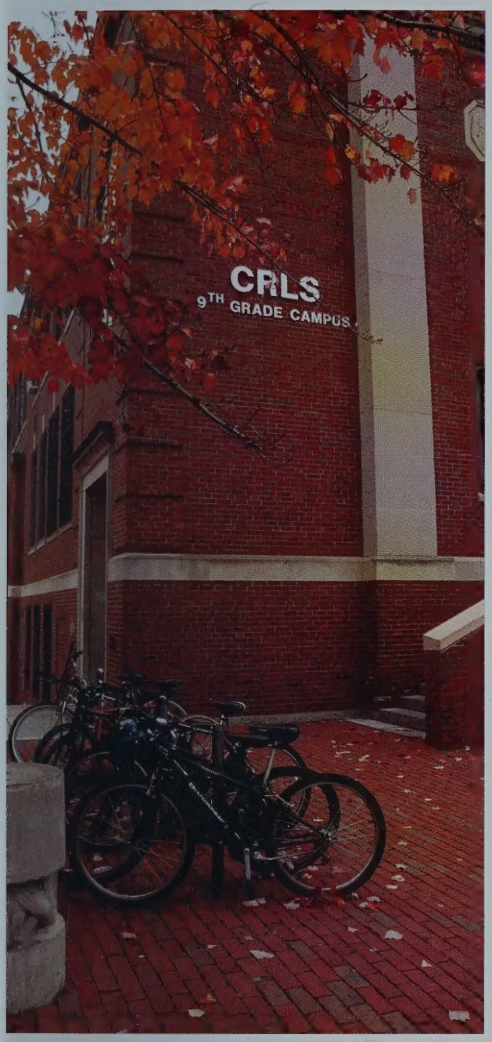
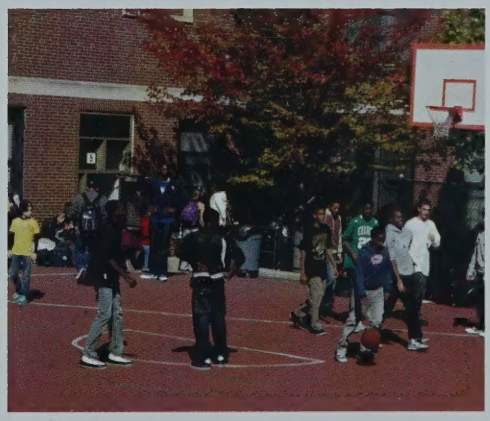
Where it all began



Remember our first day of school when we were in our own little campus in 2009-2010 that seems so long ago.. Going from small freshman to upper class seniors we have gained memorable experiences that we will never forget.

Freshman orientation in the 9th campus auditorium. They talked to us about future experiences we will encounter in high school and, the many opportunities available to us.

Mr. Gehant, our Dean of Curriculum, and Programs, spoke to us about clubs, sports, and activities we can join at the main campus.



Enjoying basketball and hanging with friends. Even though we lost that "recess"privilege, we gained the full campus experience and freedom of an "open campus" at the newly renovated CRLS.

The start of the art installation based on string from artistic and energetic art teacher Ms. Menges and her talented students.

Fresh 9th grade faces

Life in the 9th grade campus was relaxed and "chill." We got the chance to connect with each other and strengthen our community relationship for the next 3 years at CRLS.

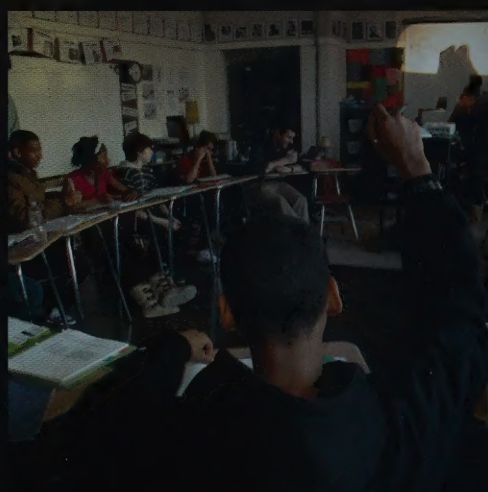
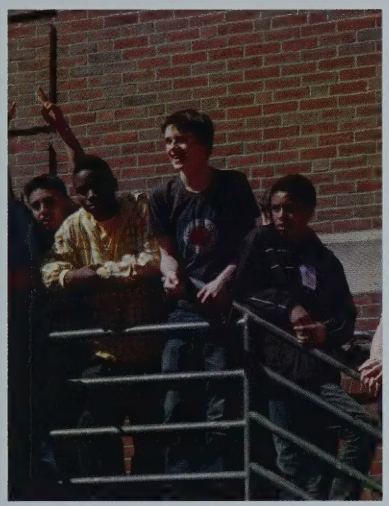
Aidan Down in the play "Once upon a mattress". A parody based on the "Princess And The Pea".

Freshman life was always the same walking up those steps, passing Filo's office, and going our separate ways. Everything seemed much easier to deal with in our own campus. We could relate to each other. Being in on our we could more easily relate to one another without upperclassmen interfering and distracting us.



A Blast from the Past



Perhaps we didn't appreciate it at the time, being set aside at the 9th program set aside in a "vintage" school building, the Longfellow school. In fact we got to bond, and build a strong 9th grade community. We now graduate from a beautiful, state-of-the-art, newly renovated CRLS. In the end we got the best of both possible worlds.

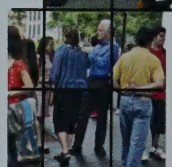
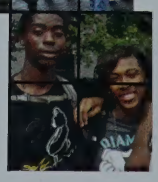
Freshmen Orientation





Welcome Class of 2016!

The senior class of 2013 welcomed the incoming freshman class of 2016 with tours of the school, bonding activities, and advice from sage upperclassmen.

First Day of School

Peer Mentors Lead Freshmen Orientation

Student mentors share pieces of wisdom gathered in their 4 years at CRLS. Apprehensive 9th graders hear mentors' words, especially during building tours. They realize the opportunities now ahead of them. Mentors help 9th graders navigate the transition from middle school by building ongoing relationships throughout the year. Mentors gain a sense of pride helping freshmen become part of our CRLS community. This mentoring process gives life and meaning to our motto: Opportunity, Diversity, Respect.

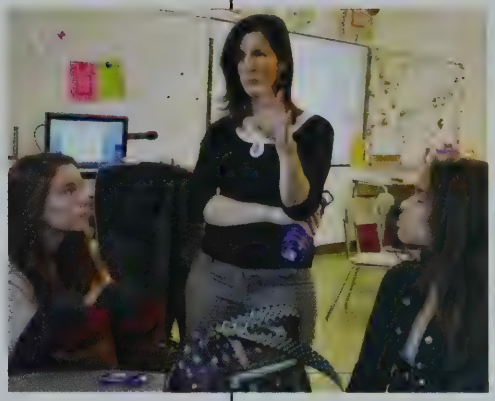
As STARs, we are family of students who come together to bring about positive, proactive change within CRLS and the Cambridge community as we discover our own voices and passions. We strive to hold out our motto of diversity, opportunity and respect. The beauty is that every semester our class takes on a new life depending on who is in it and what issues we're engaging in. That's how we play out the potential of all that is STARs.

STARs Period 3

STARs

Students Teaching and Advocating Respect

Once a STAR, always a STAR! STARs is a peer leadership program, where students actively work to make CRLS and the City of Cambridge a better community. Students create assemblies, workshops, and other projects that help advocate community awareness. STARs provides a safe and comfortable learning environment that allows each student to grow into her/his best self and into a stronger leader.



"I love working with STARs because they remind me of the power and wisdom of youth with their voices and ideas. They remind me that it's important to care about what really matters. They give me hope and inspiration to keep fighting for what is right."

Minority Student Achievement Network

The Minority Student Achievement Network (MSAN) is a network of school districts across the country that work independently and collaboratively to close achievement gaps. In Cambridge, the program exists as a student club, an elective class called Racial and Cultural Identities (MSAN Seminar) and an MSAN Community Meeting.

The seniors this year led a delegation of students to the annual MSAN Student Conference held in Phoenix, Arizona. MSAN students also hosted courageous conversation forums where students assembled to discuss pressing issues connected to race, culture, and achievement.

Golf

The CRLS Golf team was composed of 40 JV and Varsity. Sam Nineburg was the MVP and leading point scorer. The Coed team worked hard, practiced hard, and studied hard. The foursome of Varsity Girls (Kerri O' Connor, Erin McLaughlin, Mary Regan, and Elena McCormick) had a terrific time and were always there to support their coach. The future of CRLS golf is bright because of the Freshmen (Liam Greenwell, Lucas Raggas, Raiden Duffy and Craig Williams.) The CRLS Swim and Diving team have worked extremely hard and have made it to the (GBL). There are practices at 6am in the War Memorial pool and after school. Having these early and afternoon practices are very effective and make the team stronger and confident. Seniors Jason Vasquez-Li, Hannah Gibson and Victoria Hornstein with the help from their teammates have made it to states. Sophomore Logan Chen has broken the school record for the 100 meter breast stroke at the time of 1:06:43 seconds. Overall, the team has done a fantastic job and they should be very proud of themselves. Congratulations on a great season and the school is looking forward to returning members and new people coming in next year.

The boys had a tremendous season, going undefeated in capturing the GBL title and placing 3rd in the state. Senior captains Alex Kirby and Niko Emack-Bazelais provided excellent leadership and the team followed suit. In addition the 4 x200 Relay Team won both the Division 1 and All State Championship. It was another great season in the storied history of Cambridge Track! The girls team won the Massachusetts Division 1 State title as well as the GBL title. Led by senior co-captains Anchella Bernard and Dora Cornin, as well as super sophs Maya Halprin-Adams and Sydney Fisher, the girls had a great year and will continue to be a force for year to come.

Gymnastics

The Co-Ed Team got off to a big start this season with over 50 students going out for the team, a record size for the program. While having such large team can propose it's challenges, team members rising to the occasion and never ceased to impress their Captains and Coaches. Unfortunately, due to the significant snow storm this year, the GBL meet had to be canceled, so instead the team hosted an End-of-Season Showcase for their friends and family.
